

Statement on the London Bombings

July 8, 2005

The National Association of Muslim Lawyers (NAML) condemns in the strongest possible terms the attacks in London. We express our deep condolences to the victims and the people of Great Britain and hope that the perpetrators are found and swiftly brought to justice in accordance with accepted legal norms.